Bridgeport.

A few chickens left.
The Professor will survive.
It was indeed a gala day.
Weather prophets are now in order.
The Pen Ridge pike seems to be the next.
Thanksgiving gobblers are now ready to be trotted out.

Meers, John and Wm. H. Dennis are in Owen county visiting.

Mr. Jas. Hapwell, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mr. G. W. Hall.

According to appointment, Prof. T. M. Hawes, of outstanding fame, of Louisville, gave an entertainment in the Bridgeport Christian Church last Saturday, Nov. 7th, at night. The enthusiasm that prevailed was indicative of the high appreciation in which he is held in this vicinity. Such entertainments are elevating in character, calculated as they are to enhance the literary standing in a community. Every effort should therefore be made to encourage such undertakings. The visit of the Professor will ever be regarded to as an oasis in the history of Bridgeport.

Last Sunday was ushered in beautiful and bright, as it prepared especially for the occasion of the dedication of the new Baptist Church near this place. The beautiful and commodious building was crowded to its utmost capacity with an appreciative audience to participate in the dedication ceremonies. Order of exercises: Song, "Oh, Happy Days, Prayer, Dr. J. M. Lewis, of Woodford, leading; Sermon, by Dr. Wm. M. Pratt, of Lexington; Prayer, Dr. Lewis; Long, Meter, Doxology; Declaration, by Dr. Pratt. The annex of the Church changed from New South Baptist to "Evergreen Baptist Church." The meeting is being projected.

Proceedings of the Franklin County Teachers' Association.
Convened in Bridgeport school-house Nov. 7, 1885. The attendance was larger than at any previous meeting, and the interest manifested by the presence and aid of the citizens to make the occasion profitable and pleasant to the teachers, was clearly demonstrated. The address of welcome by Prof. Lea and response by Col. T. B. Ford were excellent, and elicited encores of deserving praise. Prof. L. E. Hallett's model lesson in Arithmetic was presented in a clear and concise manner, clearly proving him a master workman. Rev. and Prof. R. H. Hangerford, of Shelbyville, was present and gave some valuable hints on the same subject. Miss Katie Shipp's essay, "Woman Was Made to Talk," was but a reflection of her already grown fame as a writer of the highest order.

We predict for this beautiful and accomplished young lady a bright future. By request she also read an excellent paper, "Why should not the modern school teacher be proud?" which she was requested to have published. Messrs. C. P. Evans and Joe Pears asked to be excused from addressing the Association. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Frank Johnson, Thos. Hunter and W. H. Parrott, each exhibiting himself in a very creditable manner. Col. John L. Scott's remarks on "Educational Progress" elicited rounds of applause. The Col. is a great favorite with the teachers, as he is clearly the teacher's friend. By a resolution offered by Mr. Frank Johnson a recognition will be effected at the next meeting, Dec. 2, 1885. Meeting to commence promptly at 9 o'clock, in the City School building, Frankfort. All the teachers in the county are requested to be present. A vote of thanks was tendered the citizens of Bridgeport for their hospitality on that occasion. Adjourned.

C. H. PARBENT, Sec'y.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Mr. Howard Stedman left last week to travel for the Kentucky Twine Factory.

Mrs. Turner and daughter, Miss Louisa, have gone to the mountains to spend the winter.

Mr. Campbell Stedman left last week for Eddyville, where he expects to obtain a situation.

Miss Katie Cannon left yesterday for Scott county, where she expects to remain all winter.

Mrs. Ophelia Cox and Miss Carrie Bell Allen, of Stedmanville, spent the evening with Mrs. Sallie Burdett last Monday.

The meeting closed at Mt. Pleasant last Sunday night with five additions; three by experience and two by letter. The ordinances of baptism will be administered Sunday, Nov. 15, at 3 o'clock, p. m.

During the honeymoon Mr. John Reddy has invented a patent swing. Any one who wishes to pass away their leisure hours in a pleasant swing-away can procure one cheap by calling on him. You will find him at home swinging.

Who's the matter with the printers? They got several things wrong last week in our issue. They had Graham for Gorman, Jo. Snully for Mo. Simily, and Cove Hill for Coghill. Now, too much coon or elder, which? Come now, boys, put on your due.

Write our communications in United States.—(Tiro.)

Bardinsville was highly honored this week by a visit from two of Kentucky's best trotters, Judge Lindsey and Lady Catchfly. They were there to be shod. It has also been honored with a visit from (Howard, Pretender, Adonis, King, Jagger, Ingleswood, Lady Mist, and a host of celebrated trotters, young and old, during the season.

Dead.—At 10 o'clock last Monday night, of consumption, Mrs. R. B. Bishop, aged 57 years. The remains were carried to North Fork Church, where Bro. John Cannon preached the funeral, text, John XIV, 1-23 verses, after which the remains were deposited there in the burying ground. She leaves a husband and three children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Her body lies in the church yard there, in the cold and silent tomb.
But her spirit's now with Jesus there,
Where there's never a shadow of gloom.

Not a wave of trouble there
To vex her peaceful breast;
She's safe in the arms of Jesus,
In sweet eternity's rest.

"The Private Secretary."

The New York Mirror says of this successful farcical comedy:

The piece made a tremendous hit. There were no tedious moments; the meriment was kept up without cessation from the beginning to the end, and the spectators voted the management's departure from emaculated sentiment to hearty, healthy fun, an unquestionable success.

The piece evoked almost continuous laughter, as we have said, and the actors were kept up without cessation from the beginning to the end, and the spectators voted the management's departure from emaculated sentiment to hearty, healthy fun, an unquestionable success.

The Madison Square Company that appears in the play here to-night, will be up to their usual standard, and include among others Mr. W. H. Gillette.

Antioch.

Preaching at Pleasant Ridge to-morrow.

The cold wave struck us Saturday night.

Cedar Run had a good delegation out last Sunday.

Mr. James Brawner is reported on the sick list this week.

Born.—Nov. 5th, to T. D. Hales and wife, a daughter, 12 pounds—Nellie Brown.

Mrs. Carter Hales, Sam. Lewis and wife and Mrs. Wm. Lewis, of Belle Point, were out last Sunday.

Messrs. J. A. and J. E. Glorie, of South Frankfort, were at Antioch last Sunday. Look out, boys, they may cut some of you out.

Mrs. George Shackelford, after a week's visit to her father, Jas. Glorie, returned to her home in Winchester last Saturday, accompanied by her brother James.

As predicted last Saturday was a "gala day" for the teachers that met at Bridgeport. There was a large crowd and every one enjoyed themselves. We cannot speak too highly of the hospitality of that pleasant little town. The citizens vied with each other in endeavoring to make each visitor feel they were indeed welcome guests of the town. They have the best school-house and it is a monument to the enterprise and liberality of the citizens of that district. The citizens show by their acts that they are interested in the education of their children. Cheap houses and cheap teachers are not their motives. All houses are for them say we. Let other districts go and do likewise.

Miraculous Escapes.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. Kid's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now as much improved as she could be using it. She feels she owes her life to it. Free Trial Bottles at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store."

Attention, Teachers!

The teachers of Franklin county are requested to meet promptly at the City School building, Frankfort, second Saturday in December, at nine o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of considering the arrangements for the "County Teachers' Reading Circle."

Jas. B. LEA,

Pres't Reading Circle.

A Card.

To the Democratic Voters of Franklin County.

Having been twice elected to the office of county surveyor by very large and highly complimentary votes without any formal announcement or solicitation from me, I have looked upon it as an appreciation of fitness and qualification for a position of responsibility of such qualities, and the responsibility of which is known only by those thoroughly familiar with the science of surveying.

For your choice I have felt profoundly grateful, and being still awakened to the fact that an attempt was made at the last election to defeat me, I am underhanded way by men who flatter their prejudices to override their judgment, I now present my name formally for re-election and respectfully ask your endorsement at the polls.

D. M. WOODSON.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisis, also flatter the pulse, and was in a very miserable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle. He now takes a bottle daily and is entirely cured and has gained in flesh thirteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Jos. LeCompte.

Belle Point.

Judge W. L. Pence is rebuilding the Champion Saw-mill that was destroyed by fire last May. The building will be 99 by 48 feet, 2 stories high with an iron roof. The saw-mill will be a patent Band and Circular mill combined, made by the Starnes Manufacturing Company, of Erie, Pa. There will be 2 boilers 26 feet long, 22 inches in diameter, with two 9 and 3 1/4 inch flues in each, made by C. J. Walton, of Louisville. The engine is a patent center crank, Terpin Engine, 18 by 20, 100 horse power, made by Smith, Meyers & Schrier, of Cincinnati. The mill will be ready for operation by March 1st, and when completed will be one of the most complete saw-mills in the State. Mr. Pence has an agent in the mountains getting out the finest lot of logs ever brought to this market. They will be from 10 to 30 feet long, oak and poplar, and are to average 1,000 feet to the log. The probable cost of this mill will be about twelve thousand dollars.

The Banker's Daughter.

[From the Dayton, Ohio, Journal, Jan. 4, 1885.]

The J. F. Crossen Company produced "The Banker's Daughter" yesterday matinee and night to two crowded houses, nearly three thousand people being present at both performances. The company is one of the best ever seen in Dayton, and the play was magnificently produced. The part of G. Washington Ellery in the play, by Mr. J. E. Crossen, was the best ever seen in Dayton; the company and play were well received and will be greeted by a crowded house on their return.

This company will appear at the Opera House Monday night, November 16.

"Oh! Cast that Shadow from Thy Brow."

You can't do it if you have liver complaint or dyspepsia. That dark-eyed countenance tells the story of inward commotion and woe. Clear your stomach, strengthen your digestion, regulate your liver, tone your nerves, and then away goes the shadow from your brow, and you are happy because you are well. Mrs. M. J. Aiston, of Littleton, N. C., says, "I recommend Browning's Bitters to the nervous and debilitated. It greatly benefited me."

Neuralgia

CAN BE CURED WITHOUT THE USE OF OPIUM OR MORPHINE!

The Medical Brief, published at St. Louis, says: "In the June, 1884, issue of 'Many have become victims to the use of opium or morphine, from the use of those drugs for the relief of Neuralgia. It is gratifying to observe that such dangerous consequences may be avoided by the use of VonSoderlin, which is almost a specific in the acute form of Neuralgia.'"

Singer's Bitters is a powerful PHYSICIAN'S REMEDY.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

A. A. KELLIG, Sole Proprietor, 109 and 111 WASHINGTON AVENUE, ST. LOUIS.

"Used VonSoderlin in a case of Neuralgia of 12 or 15 years standing, which had resisted all treatment. This was the first time since and the patient has enjoyed perfect freedom from her complaint."

E. L. MOORE, M. D., Genesville, Mo.

"Have given VonSoderlin a fair trial in Neuralgia. To use my own name is a recommendation. It is the medicine for this disease." J. F. RICHARD, St. Louis, Mo.

I consider VonSoderlin the best preparation for Neuralgia I have ever tried."

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 14, 1885.

Unless the Court of Claims changes its mind again before the contracts are let, we may have a new jail some time next year.

Mr. G. Russell Rodman has received his commission and will take charge of the Post-office on Monday. Mr. Russell Sued will be his deputy, though Messrs. Charley Saffell and Rector Crittenden will be in the office for a month or two.

Mr. J. Taylor Graham has been elected driver of the hook and ladder truck by the City Council, and has become one of the regular force on duty at the engine house. In the future the ladders will not be driven to a fire by the first man who comes along, as heretofore.

Mr. M. H. Cronwell, of this county, left at this office on Monday nine turkeys which averaged 20 inches in circumference and weighed six pounds each. If any one can show a larger or better lot of those vegetables he must be a hustler, for they were as fine as we have ever seen.

Frankfort Chapter, No. 3, meets in regular monthly communication on Tuesday evening next, at 7 o'clock. It is hoped that all the members of Frankfort Council, No. 5, R. and S. M., will attend the meeting, as an effort will be made to reorganize that body after the adjournment of the Chapter.

Mr. Richard A. Bohannon has purchased the stock of groceries of Mr. Jas. M. Todd and rented the store-room lately occupied by him, on the corner of Main and Ann streets. After disposing of the groceries at auction, Mr. Bohannon will open a billiard hall and cigar stand there.

In running out to the fire Tuesday afternoon the hook and ladder truck was driven so awkwardly that in entering the bridge, one of the hind wheels struck the division of the bridge, turning the truck up on the side, knocking the bell off, bending the hind axle, and damaging it otherwise. None of the regular hook and ladder boys were doing the driving however.

Mr. John W. Mastin, father of Messrs. Mastin Bros., of this city, left his home on the Versailles pike, seven miles from this city, Saturday morning for the purpose of carrying a threshing machine down to Millville. He was riding horse back, carrying the tongue on his shoulder, when his horse became unmanageable and finally threw him, the tongue falling on the side of his head and breaking his jaw bone. He has suffered greatly from the accident but is doing as well as possible.

The reservoir is fast approaching completion. The embankment is about finished, the stone work of the north basin is completed with only a few inches of the top and there only remains a few days' work on that of the south basin. The coping will then have to be put on and the work will be about done. The Influent pipes are now being put in and the outside of the embankment trimmed down, preparatory to sowing it in rye, timothy and blue grass. Water was pumped into the north basin Thursday morning and the city is now being supplied from that source.

Mr. John Newnam, for the past four years principal operator at the Telephone Exchange, died Thursday afternoon, after an illness of several months with consumption. Johnnie was one of the best hearted little fellows that was ever stricken down by this relentless destroyer, and there was many a sad heart in this city when the announcement went forth that he was no more. Always bright and happy, he seemed to spread sunshine where he went, but alas his joyous laugh and merry words no more shall greet us this side of the dark river. He was a good boy and a devout Catholic. May heaven rest his soul.

Mr. Clarence Egbert, of this city, will be married on Thursday, the 26th, to Miss Maggie, daughter of Mr. B. Taylor, of Lexington.

We are to have another new bell on the Court-house. The Court of Claims appointed a committee Tuesday to confer with the City Council on the subject of a new bell, which committee brought the matter before the Council, at its meeting that night, and that body agreed to bear one-third of the expense and appointed a committee to act in conjunction with the committee of the Court in the purchase of the bell. It is to be a good one this time, one that will not break in six months.

A small frame house owned and occupied by Henry Stewart, colored, on Norton street, South Frankfort, was badly damaged by fire Tuesday afternoon. The fire originated in a back room and burnt through the floor to the cellar. The family were away from home, but the neighbors gave the alarm, and the flames were soon extinguished with buckets of water. The Fire Department went out promptly, but as there was no alarm in that part of the city none but the hook and ladder boys could be of service. The loss is about $300, covered by insurance.

The Court of Claims met on Monday and remained in session until yesterday. On Monday the jail question was again taken up and a committee appointed to advertise for bids to erect a new jail, the cost not to exceed $10,000. On Tuesday Mr. Jas. Harrod was re-elected keeper of the County Poor-house, and the office of the Poor-house Commissioner abolished.

It having come to the knowledge of the Court that Dan Hancock had been drawing money from the county for taking care of a pauper, when in fact the party represented as a pauper knew nothing of the matter and was fully able to take care of himself, the County Attorney was instructed to investigate the matter and take such steps as were necessary to secure the return of the $125 paid to said Hancock to the county treasury.

A committee was appointed to wait upon the City Council and confer with that body in relation to the purchase of a new bell for the Court-house.

Numerous pauper and other claims were allowed.

A case of fraud in pauper claims was brought to light in the Court of Claims Tuesday. It seems that Dan Hancock, a farmer living in the vicinity of Elmhurst, this county, had his father-in-law placed on the pauper list of the county and has been drawing money from the county treasury for the past two years ostensibly for his support. The old gentleman, the reputed pauper, came before the Court Tuesday and made affidavit that he was not a pauper; that he owned a farm in Owen county, which was rented out; that he was drawing a pension of eight dollars per month as a soldier in the late war, and had recently received $700 back pension from the Government, and that his name had been placed on the pauper list without his knowledge or consent. The matter was turned over to County Attorney Violett for investigation, with the instruction to take such steps as were necessary to secure the return of the money paid to Hancock. From the well known energy and promptness with which that officer performs all his official duties, it is safe to say that Daniel will come to judgment.

Personal.

Mrs. Fred. Howard is visiting relatives in Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Nettie McElwain, of Lexington, visited friends in this city on Tuesday.

Mr. Chas. W. Saffell returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit to Lancaster.

Mrs. Lydia M. Peyton, of this city, is recovering from a very serious spell of sickness.

Mr. George Huffman and wife left Tuesday morning to visit friends in Louisville.

Mrs. H. G. Mattern left Wednesday afternoon for a visit to relatives in Louisville.

Dr. W. H. Harris returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit of several days to friends near Shelbyville.

Mrs. Chapman Coleman, of Louisville, has been visiting relatives in this city the past two weeks.

Mrs. Mary Bell, of this city, left Wednesday morning for New Orleans to spend the winter with her brother.

Dr. Wm. Morris, of this city, left Wednesday morning for Reed Foot Lake, on a hunting and fishing excursion.

Misses Agnes Nicol and Addie Lawler left Monday afternoon to visit friends near St. Matthews, Jefferson county.

Miss Lizzie Downing and Miss Carrie Lang left Wednesday for New Albany, Indiana, to attend the New-house Hartman wedding.

Misses Minnie Porter and Sallie England, of Bowling Green, who have been visiting friends in this city, left Monday morning for home.

Mr. J. F. McAdoo, of the State Geological Survey, who has been making a topographical survey of several of the Green river counties, has returned to this city for the winter.

Mr. Landon A. Thomas, Jr., and bride arrived in this city Tuesday afternoon on their way to Florida from a bridal trip to Washington, New York and other Eastern cities.

Switzer.

Ed Roundabout:

We noticed in your paper of last week a communication from our little village now will you be kind enough to allow us to reply to a part of said communication. In justice to our Church and neighborhood we must speak of a few falsehoods that have been given to the public by Observer. He begins in a very noisy like way but before proceeding very far seems to leave that subject entirely and mentions only a few particulars which are of no interest to the public.

He informs the good people of this community that we have reserved seats in our church that are kept for certain persons and that all others must remember. Now this statement is false in every particular. It is true that this Church, like all other good Christian people, try to make a success of the worship of God, and good singing is a very important part, and by special request of those who lead in the singing several young ladies and gentlemen from other Churches were invited to take seats near the front, where they could aid in singing. This seemed to meet the hearty approval of all the enlightened and sensible men and women of this church and community, and we are glad to say that with their help our singing was a grand success, and will here say that those who occupied the so-called reserved seats behaved themselves like ladies and gentlemen of refinement and good raising, which is more than can be said of some who occupied seats further back in the Church. I take the responsibility on myself to say that Observer has not only told a falsehood in regard to the reserved seats but he has also lied in saying that he is a member of this Church. I am of the opinion that he has his first Sunday-school lesson to recite, and instead of studying the word of God as found in our Sunday-school lessons he makes himself a satirist and emissary of the devil himself by trying to create a disturbance in our community by lying and trying to slander those who are far his superior in morality, intellect and every other qualification required to make a gentleman.

We would further say that had we reserved seats in our Church they would be for those who attend the house of God for the purpose of being instructed and made better men and women and not for those who come about to see and be seen and make stultaneous remarks about both minister and congregation as is generally the case with those observant attendants at the house of God. The young ladies spoken of will continue to tread the muddy roads wherever business demands it or they feel so inclined. Nothing has been said about them boarding with Dr. Dawson, this winter, and not until they have read and S. for life long companions will they make any application. True, H. & S. hope to be able to pay their board bill and not have to depend on good father-in-laws like many young men in these fine days. We are happy to inform the public and especially those who love the Sunday-school in reality that we are determined, with the help of God and the good people of this and other churches, to carry the Sunday-school successfully through this and many other winters to come. God blessing the Sunday-school as an instrument in the hands of his people in training the young in the ways of eternal life, we hope that John Switzer will be no unsuccessful with his little class over the creek as he has been with his select class at the dear old church. And the believers referred to in connection with the dear girls, may God bless them, they want his protecting care, and may they, though it be at the eleventh hour, be crowned with success and find in their partners for life sweet, loving girls who will prove a blessing to them in making the rough journey through life one of sunshine and happiness.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, NOVEMBER 14, 1885.

The water mains got out of gear again yesterday.

Hogs WANTED.—Farmers having good, well fattened hogs for sale can receive the highest market price by calling on C. W. Finkel.

These moonlight nights are nice for hunting coons and opossums.

It is rumored that a young lady of this city, now visiting in an Eastern City, will shortly wed a young Naval officer.

Judge P. U. Major has called a special equity, criminal and penal term of the Franklin Circuit Court to meet on the fourth Monday in January.

The residence of Mr. James Lloyd, on the Glens Creek pike, just above the Spring Hill Distillery, was destroyed by fire about noon Monday.

Capt. S. V. Pence is negotiating for the purchase of the steamboat Hibernia, and if he succeeds in getting her will put her into the Kentucky river trade.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to complete the repairs on the old fountain in the State House yard so as to have it playing by the time the Legislature meets.

Judge Thomson has added to his cabinet an old Continental note for $55. It was issued in 1779, and is about the size of the fifty cent greenbacks, which were in circulation during the war.

Mr. Ben. G. Williams, while out hunting one day last week, was so unfortunate as to have his gun go off accidentally, the charge tearing the flesh from the palm and little finger of his left hand.

The special Superior Court appointed to hear the appeal of J. J. Cornellson, who cowbided the late Judge Reid, met in this city Tuesday and has been in session the balance of the week hearing the arguments of counsel.

Mr. C. M. Jones, of the Furndale neighborhood, brought to his office on Monday a curiosity in the shape of a double head of cabbage. To look at it one would think it was only one head, but inside the outer leaves are two well defined heads.

"Crazy Patch" is the name of a new farcical comedy in three acts, which was presented at the new Chicago Opera House for the first time the opening night, before an immense audience, and another crowded house greeted the Castleton Company last night. The piece belongs to the family of absurdities, but it is better written than most of its congeners and contains a plot of some merit. Miss Kate Castleton is seen to better advantage than when appearing with Rice's Surprise Party. She entertains her audience during the entire play with comic song, dances, and numerous changes of dress. She has an unusually strong company.—The Times, Nov. 9th.

At the Opera House Thursday, Nov. 19th.

Small grain of all kinds sown this fall is looking remarkably well.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Hughes & Chiles.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FRANKFORT, KY., Oct. 19, 1885.

This is to certify that for the last five years I have been suffering severely with sore eyes—in fact one of my eyes was nearly blind. I had tried the doctors and they could do me no good. At last HENRY SAMUEL, of Frankfort, prepared an eye wash for me, and I used it, and in two weeks both of my eyes were well. I enthusiastically recommend Henry Samuel's Eye Wash to all persons suffering with sore eyes.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Sandridge.

The public school is said to be a brilliant success.

This little colony is one of the most profitable in Kentucky for babies. Every cradle is full.

David Dalton, our evangelist, is teaching the heathen biblical ideas every Sunday evening at 2 o'clock.

Attorney Joseph Pears, of Frankfort, delivered an interesting address before the Union Sunday-school on Sunday, Nov. 1st.

The Johnston colony has become an enlightened community. The young ladies are beautiful and the gentlemen gallant and brave.

A few bonnie belles came up from the river to giggle and cack in the Union Sunday-school service. They were severely rebuked.

Bos Kenny will soon appear in the columns of this paper as an independent candidate for Jailer, "subject to the action" of no party, clique or ring.

Our farmers are exasperated over their treatment at the Frankfort flouring mills. They have taken their wheat this week to the Sewell mills where they expect justice.

Capt. James Harp has a horse 16 hands high that will enter the dwelling, whirl around the family beds, and attempt to ascend the garret stairs after apples "George" craves fruit after the manner of some small boys.

We have a very small boy of six years who never laughs and who would make David, if alive, throw down his sling. He can split an apple on the bridge of his mother's nose 50 feet. His bite is venomous, and he is said to have six rattles and a button. This curiosity would bring a round million to Peck's Snob.

Bald Knob.

W. L. Lee has re-opened his grocery on Flat Creek.

Geo. Brewer has moved back to this place from Shelby county.

Wm. Terrell and wife are visiting relatives in Shelby county.

A. J. Greenwell, of Cropper's station, was in this vicinity last Saturday.

E. Q. Lee and wife left last Friday for a visit to friends and relatives in Midway.

John W. Rodgers is circulating his cards announcing himself as a candidate for Jailer.

Charlie Baker, boss of the road gang, was engaged Saturday in having the road gutters filled up.

Meeting at Lebanon Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. J. A. Head will occupy the pulpit.

John R. Mays and wife, of Shelby county, are visiting friends and relatives in this community.

Parents, look well to the reading of your dear children. See to it that they obtain nothing of an impure or misleading nature to fill their youthful and active minds with a poison that may be the means of ruining soul and body. Send for the young plenty of pure literature, both books and periodicals, and then assist them in getting started in their mental growth and spread over all their efforts in this direction with a growing supply of the teachings of the bible. Train them carefully in the way they should go and the while lead the way and you need have no fears as to the future outcome of your efforts. May God bless and help the parents.

Benson.

Pork packing comes now.

Game plentiful. Spare the quails.

Wild grapes plentiful. Cold winter.

That wedding didn't come off. Just wait.

Teachers' meeting at Bridgeport Saturday was a grand success.

Stripping tobacco is the order of the day. Boys, it is low. The old crop is in the way of the new.

Mr. Job, Smith, of Bloomington, and Mr. W. F. Russell, of Bridgeport, are working of removing to Benson. We three welcome you.

The sun of new life is arising to the school interest in Kentucky. No doubt about it. Franklin county is throwing off her shackles. The teachers are making themselves felt. Other friends of education than the teachers are pointing in the triumphant march.

The organization of the Franklin County Historical Society as an adjunct to the County Teachers' Association, is quite commendable. Now, let the County Court furnish the County Superintendent a commodious office. Let this room be furnished neatly and handsomely by the court, by the F. C. E. & H. A., by subscription, or otherwise. Then let it be the repository of the F. C. E. & H. A., as well as the office of the Superintendent. The Superintendent is a county official and the county should furnish him an office, and it should be as neat as a new pin.

Not one of the hundreds of teachers are pointing in the triumphant march.

a fit place to receive them. Another point worth mentioning is that the female teachers of the county are more interested in their profession than the male. This is proven by their attendance and interest in the Teachers' Association. God bless the women. What would the world be without them? They take hold of their work with a tenacity that knows no compromise.

The attention of the County Court has not been called to a more worthy object for years. A trifling consideration will suffice. We will not be diverted from our purpose. We will not be diverted from our purpose.

"DROPPED DEAD."

The Fate that Overcame "Little Ben" and his five other Governors.

Appropos of the sudden death of Gen. Geo. B. McClain, we note that the New York Sun, points out the singular fact that Governor Ben Witt (Clinton), Governor Silas Wright (Governor), William H. Miller (Governor) and Chief Justice Sanford E. Church, and Governor R. E. Fenton, all of New York State, dropped dead of heart disease, and under quite identical circumstances—each of them dying while reading a letter except Mayes, who was pursuing Cooper's poems!

Hold your hand against the ribs on your left side, front—the regular, steady beating of the great "force pump" of the system, run by an unknown and mysterious Engineer, is awful in its rhythmic force.

Few persons like to count their own pulse-beats, and fewer persons still enjoy marking the "throb-throb" of their own heart.

"What if it should skip a beat?"

As a matter of fact the heart is the least susceptible to primary disease of any of our vital organs. It is, however, very much injured by certain long-continued congestions of the vital organs, like the kidneys, liver and stomach. Moreover, blood filled with uric acid produces a rheumatic tendency, and is very injurious to healthful heart action—it often proves fatal, and, of course, the uric acid comes from impaired kidney action.

Roberts, the great English authority, says that heart disease is chiefly secondary to some more fatal malady in the blood or other vital organs. That is, it is not the original source of the vital malady.

The work of the heart is to force blood into every part of the system. If the organs are sound it is an easy task. If they are at all diseased, it is a very, very hard task. Take as an illustration: The kidneys are very subject to congestion, and yet, being located in the nerves of sensation, this congested condition is not indicated by pain. It may exist for years, unknown even to physicians, and if it does not result in complete destruction of the kidneys, the extra work which is forced upon the heart weakens it very early, and a "mysterious" sudden death claims another victim!

This is the true history of "heart disease"—so called, which in reality is chiefly a secondary effect of Bright's disease, the kidneys, and indicates the universal need of that renowned specific Warner's safe cure.

B. F. Larnabee, Esq., of Boston, who was a wonderfully cured of Bright's disease, in 1879, says that with its disappearance went the distressing heart disorder, which he then discovered was only secondary to the renal trouble.

There is a general impression that the medical profession is not at fault if it frankly admits that heart disease is the cause of death. In other words, a cure of the heart is not expected of them!

There may be no help for a broken down, worn out, apoplectic heart, but there is a help for kidney disorder, which in many cases is responsible for the heart trouble, and if its use put money and fame into the treasury of the profession instead of into the hands of an independent investigator, every graduated doctor in the world would exclaim of it, as one noble and less prejudiced than his fellows, once exclaimed: "It is a God-send to humanity!"

What therefore must be the public estimate that history and the will of frankness which forbids in such cases (because forsooth) it is a proprietary article, the use of the one effective remedial agency of the age?

"Oh, yes," you say, "but, you know, it's a God-send to humanity!"

"Dead without a moment's warning?" The likewise is an epithet. Warnings are given by the thousand. Physicians are "not surprised," they "expect" you! They know what the result will be, but, they stifle it—"Oh, yes," you say, "but, you know, it's a God-send to humanity!"

The fate that overcame "Little Ben" and his five other Governors, and exclusive one—It threatens every one who fails to heed the warnings of nature as set forth above.

Hard Times.

While money is close, wages and prices low, expenses should be cut down in every household. Economy with the worst of mothers, hand out doctor bills, by always keeping in the house, a bottle of Dr. Bosanqui's Cough and Lung Syrup. Stops a cough instantly, relieves consumption, cures Croup and pain in the Chest in one night. It is just the remedy for hard times. Price 60 cents and $1.00. Samples free. Sold by Hughes and Chiles.
